

Telluride is a charming and picturesque town that beckons travelers with its stunning natural beauty and rich history. Known for its world-class skiing and snowboarding in the winter months, Telluride transforms into a vibrant hub for outdoor enthusiasts year-round. The town itself is a well-preserved relic of the 19th-century mining era, with its historic Main Street lined with colorful Victorian-era buildings, which now house an eclectic mix of boutiques, restaurants, and art galleries.

About Telluride Regional Airport – Telluride, Colorado (TEX)

One of the most iconic features of Telluride is its remarkable natural surroundings. Surrounded by towering peaks, the town offers a plethora of outdoor activities, from hiking and mountain biking in the summer to backcountry skiing and snowshoeing in the winter. The unique blend of outdoor adventure and cultural richness makes it an extraordinary destination for those seeking a memorable and immersive experience in the heart of the Colorado Rockies.

Number of runways

1

Average number of yearly flights

9,402

Average number of daily flights

26

Airport location:

1500 Last Dollar Rd
Telluride, CO 81435

Telluride, Colorado: Things to do

Bear Creek Falls Hike
Alta Lakes Hike
Bridal Veil Falls Hike
Telluride Ski Resort
Mount Wilson Trailhead

Telluride, Colorado lodging

Inn at Lost Creek
Lumiere Telluride
The Madeline Hotel and Residences
New Sheridan Hotel
Fairmont Heritage Place Franz Klammer Lodge

Telluride, Colorado dining

Il Poggio Trattoria
La Marmotte Bistro & Wine Bar
Cosmopolitan Restaurant & Saloon
Allred's Restaurant & Wine Bar
221 South Oak

Telluride Regional Airport also serves:

Silverton, CO
Ouray, CO
Mountain Village, CO
Placerville, CO
Ridgway, CO

Charter a flight to/from Telluride Regional Airport – Telluride, Colorado (TEX)

Experience Telluride in unparalleled luxury and convenience by choosing private aviation for your next journey. Embrace the freedom to set your own schedule, skip long security lines, and savor the privacy of your own cabin. Private aviation offers unmatched comfort and efficiency, allowing you to arrive in Telluride refreshed and ready to explore. Charter your private flight today!