About Teterboro Airport – Teterboro, New Jersey (TEB)

Address:

111 Industrial Ave

Teterboro, NJ 07608

Teterboro Airport has a long and rich history. It was founded in 1916 and originally served as a military base. In fact, it was the first airport in the United States to be built specifically for military use. The airport continued to serve as a military base throughout both World Wars. In the years after World War II, Teterboro Airport began to see a rise in civilian traffic. This was due in part to the increase in travel after the war, and also to the airport's close proximity to New York City.
