

Asheville, North Carolina, situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, is celebrated for its vibrant arts community, historic charm, and stunning natural scenery. The city's downtown area is a lively mix of art deco architecture, unique boutiques, and a diverse array of dining options, particularly known for its farm-to-table restaurants. Asheville is also home to the Biltmore Estate, America's largest privately-owned home, which adds a touch of grandeur and historical significance to the region. The local arts scene thrives with numerous galleries, music venues, and festivals, making it a cultural hub for both residents and visitors.

About Asheville Regional Airport – Asheville, North Carolina (AVL)

For outdoor enthusiasts, Asheville is an ideal destination. The city's close proximity to the Blue Ridge Parkway and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park offers ample opportunities for hiking, biking, and exploring the natural beauty of the region. Additionally, Asheville has gained a reputation as a craft beer haven, boasting a high concentration of breweries that produce a variety of innovative and locally-inspired brews. This combination of natural splendor, cultural vibrancy, and a strong sense of community makes Asheville a unique and inviting place to both visit and live.

Number of runways

1

Average number of yearly flights

58,204

Average number of daily flights

159

Airport location:

61 Terminal Dr #1
Fletcher, NC 28732

Asheville, North Carolina: Things to do

Biltmore Estate

Blue Ridge Parkway
Asheville Art Museum
North Carolina Arboretum
River Arts District

Asheville, North Carolina lodging

The Omni Grove Park Inn
Grand Bohemian Hotel Asheville
The Inn on Biltmore Estate
Haywood Park Hotel
Kimpton Hotel Arras

Asheville, North Carolina dining

The Omni Grove Park Inn
Grand Bohemian Hotel Asheville
The Inn on Biltmore Estate
Haywood Park Hotel
Kimpton Hotel Arras

Asheville Regional Airport also serves:

Hendersonville, North Carolina
Black Mountain, North Carolina
Weaverville, North Carolina
Waynesville, North Carolina
Brevard, North Carolina

Charter a flight to/from Asheville Regional Airport – Asheville, North Carolina (AVL)

Are you traveling to or from Asheville? Charter a private flight today!